Day 2 – Brembana valley loop ride – 60 km

In the morning, meet&greet, bike delivery at the Hotel and bike fitting. The first ride explores Brembana valley, a green area surrounded by high mountains. The itinerary is mostly along a bike path built over an old railway, until San Pellegrino Terme, a town with remarkable Liberty-style buildings. The way back explores the park of the Bergamo hills.
Second overnight in Bergamo.

Day 3 – From Bergamo to Iseo – 60 km

The itinerary heads South, towards the large Bergamo farmland and its wide horizons. The route then follows the course of the river Oglio until it gets to Lake Iseo (Sebino), a beautiful alpine lake. The ride explores the southern side of the lake, until it gets to the town of Iseo.
Overnight in Iseo.

Day 4 – Val Camonica and Lake Iseo – 42 km

The day starts with a short train transfer to Boario Terme, in the heart of Camonica Valley. The itinerary heads South following a bike path at the bottom of the valley until it gets to the North side of Lake Iseo. The ride gets spectacular as it flanks the lake. The route then explores the entire perimeter of the charming Montisola island and then gets back to Iseo with a ferry transfer.
Second overnight in Iseo.

Day 5 – From Iseo to Desenzano – 63 km

Right South of Iseo is Franciacorta, famous for the production of sparkling wine. The itinerary crosses this beautiful region and its rolling hills until it gets to Brescia. Take time to visit the city center, Brescia is an underrated city and some of its monuments deserve a visit. After Brescia, the route crosses the green farmland until it gets to Desenzano del Garda, a charming town in front of Lake Garda.
Overnight in Desenzano.

Day 6 – Sirmione loop ride – 48 km

The first part of today's ride explores the southern side of Lake Garda, away from the crowds by the lake side. The ride goes up and down through rolling hills cultivated with various crops and crosses tiny hamlets and the charming village of Solferino. The last part of the route goes back to the lake side, towards the town of Sirmione: expect tourist crowds here, but Sirmione's fame is well-deserved!
Second overnight in Desenzano.

Day 7 – From Desenzano to Verona – 57 km

Our last ride initially crosses the area where the Lugana white wine is produced, where rolling hills are covered with large vineyards and olive groves.
